POWERJAM 2009 ANNOUNCED

September 1, 2009 (Jonesboro, Arkansas)—Hard Rock/Metal band Immortal Soul will perform at this year's Powerjam 2009 in Jonesboro, Arkansas on Saturday, September 12th. Powerjam is an annual outdoor music festival featuring live music, extreme sports, games, food, and lots of fun. The event will be held once again at the Arkansas State University Equine Center.

This year's Powerjam lineup will also feature LUSD, W.H.A.T., Altared, Noland Gilmore, Jkobs Dream, Conner Davis, House of Heroes, and Kingsdown. Powerjam is an all-ages, family-friendly event. Admission to this year's event is free.

Immortal Soul's full-length debut album, Lines in the Sand, was released in 2007 on their own Silent Sky Records imprint. The CD has received numerous favorable reviews both online and in print, including a review in Heavy Magazine (Germany), which has generated considerable exposure for the band throughout Europe. Several tracks from Lines in the Sand have also gotten regular airplay on radio and Internet radio stations across the U.S. The band also completed the construction of a new recording studio last year and is currently working on the follow-up to Lines in the Sand.

Immortal Soul's music has been described as "a lean brand of progressive metal with more crunch than a bag of chips". Lines in the Sand can be purchased on CD or as an MP3 download from CD Baby (cdbaby.com/cd/isoul), iTunes, and various other online retailers.
